

Fashion and art advice from someone f.artering through life

Welcome welcome
welcome!

It's your girl here with
award winning art,
confusion, delusion
and a nice slice of fashion.

What is there to say?
It might be June but I'm still wearing a jumper and my waterproof.

My suggestion: Feel your red hot daft self, by dressing for the weather you want.
IN FIERY COLOURS!

A pop of warm washed orange, A smash of bright tomato red. A punch of lemony yellow.

No one will believe the rain if you're emitting the sun yourself.

And let it shine out of your beautiful behind 🍷🍑

F. art

My new mantra is:
I won a trophy and now
I have
self confidence.

Vijfhoek, 2023
Reserved 🍊

Winner winner, 2024

Here I stand, confused, with the director of the Teyler's Museum, Marc de Beyer.
He had just announced me
the winner of a local painting
competition and had said
some really cool things about my work.
I think I was waiting for them to take the award back, but I still have it!

Here it is, my award winning artwork, part painting and part collage.

It's is a love letter to my sister and her husband.

Made using leftover fabric from pumpkin halloween costumes and scraps of surplus fabric from my work as a fashion designer.

The competition was called
"Aan tafel" which translates to "At the table".

On display at Gallery de Waag, Haarlem until 30th June.

Song of the week:

Hot Stuff
Donna Summer 🍏 Music